

SCHOOL DISTRICT OF MAYVILLE

830

PUBLIC USE OF SCHOOL FACILITIES

The Board of Education recognizes the need for the use of school facilities and equipment for the benefit of the community. However, the Board also bears the responsibility for the protection, upkeep and administration of all school property. Therefore, the Board shall permit the use of school buildings and equipment by civic, educational, recreational and other non-partisan, non-profit groups for purposes that do not interfere with use by the School District of Mayville and affiliated groups. No school facility or equipment shall be used for any personal gain or profit.

The primary function of the District's facilities and equipment shall be for student use. Priority for use of school facilities and equipment shall be as follows:

1. School District of Mayville groups and organizations
2. Moraine Park Technical College (MPTC)
3. Mayville City Recreation Department
4. Other organizations

Use of the following areas shall not be permitted with the exception of School District of Mayville groups and MPTC classes: shops, science rooms, band rooms, business education rooms and libraries. Any other exceptions must be approved by the District Administrator and the Director of Operations.

Fees are charged and are included in exhibit (1) for the use of school facilities and equipment in accordance with state law and established District fee schedules. Such fees shall be determined by the Board. All users, whether a rental fee is paid or not, shall be required to adhere to the established use of facilities rules and regulations
